

2008 District A Street Festival . . . by the #s

- 50 + Visual Artists at a half-dozen locations.
- 60+ Performing Artists at two stages and throughout Festival venues.
- 100 Visitors to the Fire Station's 2nd open house doubled past attendance.
- 1 Police-officer-on-a-Segway engaged and delighted neighbors of all ages.
- 20 + Individual Festival venues showcased an endless variety of local arts.
- 14 Visiting businesses, nonprofits, and community services also exhibited.
- 300 + Festival attendees spent more than $800.00 on books/tapes/CDs sold by the Friends of the Public Library.
- 1000 or so Total festival attendees were hard to pin down for the count.
- 2 "Happenings," community art products recreating Norman Rockwell's "Coming and Going," were 'woven' on 10/11 and displayed for 30 days.
- 1 dozen District A logos appeared in all the #4 Metro buses on October 11th.
- 1500 District A "bookmarks" were distributed throughout Cincinnati.
- 100 + Volunteers – including every artist & entertainer – made it all happen!